DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. If applicant desires to claim the benefit of a prior-filed application under 35 U.S.C. 119 (a-d), a specific reference to the prior-filed application in compliance with 37 CFR 1.78(a) must be included in the first sentence(s) of the specification following the title or in an application data sheet. For benefit claims under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121 or 365(c), the reference must include the relationship (i.e., continuation, divisional, or continuation-in-part) of the applications.

If the instant application is a utility or plant application filed under 35 U.S.C. 111(a) on or after November 29, 2000, the specific reference must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the actual filing date of the application or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. If the application is a utility or plant application which entered the national stage from an international application filed on or after November 29, 2000, after compliance with 35 U.S.C. 371, the specific reference must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the date on which the national stage commenced under 35 U.S.C. 371(b) or (f) or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. See 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2)(ii) and (a)(5)(ii). This time period is not extendable and a failure to submit the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 119(e) and/or 120, where applicable, within this time period is considered a waiver of any benefit of such prior application(s) under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). A benefit claim filed after the required time period may be accepted if it is accompanied by a grantable petition to accept an unintentionally delayed benefit claim under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). The petition must be accompanied by (1) the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 120 or 119(e) and 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) to the prior application (unless previously submitted), (2) a surcharge under 37 CFR 1.17(t), and (3) a statement that the entire delay between the date the claim was due under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) and the date the claim was filed was unintentional. The Director may require additional information where there is a question whether the delay was unintentional. The petition should be addressed to: Mail Stop Petition, Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450.

If the reference to the prior application was previously submitted within the time period set forth in 37 CFR 1.78(a), but not in the first sentence(s) of the specification or an application data sheet (ADS) as required by 37 CFR 1.78(a) (e.g., if the reference was submitted in an oath or declaration or the application transmittal letter), and the information concerning the benefit claim was recognized by the Office as shown by its inclusion on the first filing receipt, the petition under 37 CFR 1.78(a) and the surcharge under 37 CFR 1.17(t) are not required. Applicant is still required to submit the reference in compliance with 37 CFR 1.78(a) by filing an amendment to the first sentence(s) of the specification or an ADS. See MPEP § 201.11.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4, 17&18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Aldefeld et al. (US 20020077546 A1). Aldefeld et al. discloses a medical examination system comprising a device for taking a scout image including an x-ray [0026], a processing device for generating a scout image [0037-0039], a catheter system associated with OCT image acquisition [0029], the capacity to display the x-ray and OCT images together (superimposed) [0037-0039], whereby the system can integrate and generate both x-ray and OCT images [0027-0035 and 0023] [0018], the catheter containing a magnetic field-generating element in its tip [0030], and generates an external magnetic field surrounding the catheter [0021], along with controls for the magnetic field and external magnetic field [0018-0021], a permanent magnet in the catheter tip [0030], generating a magnetic field outward from the catheter itself and in tandem with another external electromagnet [0030].

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Aldefeld et al. in view of Hastings et al. (US 20020103430 A1). Aldefeld discloses all that is listed above substantially a medical examination system comprising a device for taking a scout image including an x-ray [0026], a processing device for generating a scout image [0037-0039], a catheter system associated with OCT image acquisition [0029], the capacity to display the x-ray and OCT images together (superimposed) [0037-0039], whereby the system can integrate and generate both x-ray and OCT images [0027-0035 and 0023] [0018], the catheter containing a magnetic field-generating element in its tip [0030], and generates an external magnetic field surrounding the catheter [0021], along with controls for the magnetic field and external magnetic field [0018-0021], a permanent magnet in the catheter tip [0030], generating a magnetic field outward from the catheter itself and in tandem with another external electromagnet [0030].

Aldefield does not disclose a magnetic field generator to interact with the catheter to move the catheter within the examination region, supplying multiple magnets on the catheter for generating orthogonal representations of the area to be imaged, or controls for multiple electromagnets on the catheter itself. Attention is then directed to the secondary reference by Hastings et al. which teaches the implementation of a three electromagnet design which substantially produces two orthogonal fields, one along the longitudinal axis and one across the catheter itself [0037-0039, 0042]. The catheter taught is capable of being moved and navigated by use of an external magnetic field and contains controls for adjusting the properties of each electromagnet in the catheter [0042-0044] [0036]. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have included the multi electromagnet system and translocation system taught by Hastings et al. in the medical examination system of Aldefield to allow for automatic placement of the catheter imaging system to ensure the best possible images are obtained.
